Guidance

Apprenticeship levy: how it will work

Updated 21 April 2016

Contents

- Paying the apprenticeship levy
- Accessing money paid under the apprenticeship levy
- Buying apprenticeship training
- What you can spend apprenticeship funding on – all employers
- Eligibility for training
- When further information will be available
- Get in touch

In April 2017 the way the government funds apprenticeships in England is changing. Some employers will be required to contribute to a new apprenticeship levy, and there will be changes to the funding for apprenticeship training for all employers.

What next?

June 2016

In June 2016 there will be information about:

- provisional funding bands, which will set the maximum amount of funding which is available for each apprenticeship from April 2017
- the provisional level of the government support that will be available towards the cost of apprenticeship training if you aren't a levy paying employer, from April 2017
- the provisional level of the extra payment you can get for hiring 16 to 18 year old apprentices, from April 2017
- the provisional amount that will be paid for English and maths training for apprentices who need it, from April 2017
- eligibility rules that set who you are able to spend apprenticeship funding on and where
- more information on who can provide apprenticeship training and how you can set up your organisation to deliver apprenticeship training
